

Welcome to today's panel!

- First time using Webex?
  - You can communicate with other attendees or the host in the Chat Box and seek technical assistance if needed.
  - You can type questions about the material presented in the Q&A section.
- Today's webinar will be recorded and shared publicly. Please keep this in mind when sharing information and experiences during the webinar.

For people with intellectual
and developmental disabilities

Planning for a Future in the Workforce: Jobs, Skills, and Supports

Moderator:

Amie Lulinski, Ph.D., The Arc of the United States

Panelists:

John Kramer, Ph.D., University of Boston's Institute for Community Inclusion (ICI)

Anne Roehl, University of Minnesota's Institute on Community Integration (ICI)

Melanie Whetzel, M.A., CBIS, Job Accommodation network

Achieve with us.®

Amie Lulinski, Ph.D.
Director of Research and Evaluation
The Arc of the United States

*For people with intellectual
and developmental disabilities*

John Kramer, Ph.D.

He earned his PhD in disability studies from the University of Illinois at Chicago and joined the Institute for Community Inclusion in 2008. He has focused extensively on employment work and has worked on a range of projects that include co-founding the Massachusetts Sibling Support Network (MSSN) and Supporting Illinois Brothers and Sisters.

John was awarded a Switzer research fellowship from the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research to investigate the role that siblings play in supporting employment for people with Intellectual and developmental disabilities.

*For people with intellectual
and developmental disabilities*

Anne Roehl

She joined the University of Minnesota's Institute on Community Integration (ICI) in 2012, to work with Person Centered Thinking and Planning initiatives. Before joining the University, she worked in a variety of settings supporting individuals and families impacted by disabilities.

Her education focused on disability studies, however, she'll tell you she's learned the most from the people she's served and in her role as "Mom" to a young son with Autism.

*For people with intellectual
and developmental disabilities*

Melanie Whetzel, M.A., CBIS

She is a lead consultant at JAN who joined the Cognitive / Neurological Team in February 2008. Melanie has a fourteen year history of teaching and advocating for students with disabilities in the public school system.

Melanie holds a Master of Arts degree in Special Education, a Bachelor of Arts degree in English, most recently completed a graduate certification in Career Planning and Placement for Youth in Transition, and became a certified brain injury specialist in 2015.

Questions for Our Panelists

Audience Questions?

Please raise your hand and we will call on you OR type your question into the chat box.

Next Webinar

Tuesday, November 17th, 2015, 2:00-3:00 PM Eastern Transportation and Future Planning

<https://thearc.webex.com/thearc/k2/j.php?MTID=t1ea2386da4fd3a91ba917baa405f760d>

If you have any questions, please contact us at futureplanning@thearc.org